

We specialize in crafting bespoke travel experiences ranging from small, intimate journeys to large-scale corporate events.

While we design around your pace, sensibilities, and desires — each journey draws on our deep familiarity with the regions we cover. From standout hotels and restaurants, to the local nuance that makes a place feel alive.

Whether you're after a high-density itinerary filled with tight flow and layered experiences, or something quiet and spacious, we shape the journey's rhythm around you.

Destinations

Since our start in 2011, we've traveled extensively, managing incentives across Europe and beyond. Our expertise dwells in the places we know deeply. In Croatia (our home) and wider Western Europe area.

Our experience includes:

- 19 high-end incentive trips worldwide (50 to 250 participants), with local insights and full on-site support.
- 16 large corporate events in Croatia and Slovenia (200+ participants).
- Nearly a 100 custom crafted journeys to Europe, from 4-day retreats to elaborate 5-week tours of capital cities.

José Pikunic

Background: Global marketing, leadership, and brand management in companies like Coca-Cola, Heinz, Reckitt Benckiser.

Esphera Role: Leads supplier negotiations, timeline execution, and ensures operational standards are met. José also shapes the visual and material tone of each journey — selecting hotels, venues, and experiences that carry the right aesthetic weight.

Antonio Hajden

Background: Logistics and systems planning, informed by years in interactive storytelling and gameplay-centered experience design.

Esphera Role: Builds the structural and logistical backbone of each journey. Antonio defines the pacing, narrative flow, and decision architecture — aligning every moving part to the shape and rhythm of the event.

events & travel

The travel industry loves to promise freedom, as if a plane ticket can undo a life. But real travel doesn't liberate. It deepens. It grounds you in contrast and contact.

Movement only matters when it carries meaning.
